

WyoPoets

Chapbook Publishing Project

Submission Deadline Postmarked: October 15, 2017

Only paid-up members of WyoPoets are eligible for publication in this chapbook; all submissions must be the author's original unpublished work and include:

1. A cover sheet with the poet's name, address, email and a list of the titles of all work submitted.
2. Two typewritten or computer-generated copies of each poem, one with identification, one without.
3. A short author's biographical note of 50 words or less.

Three poem limit per author. Please keep copies of your work. Poems will not be returned. Poems will be selected by a qualified juror and published in a slim volume of poetry. All rights will return to the author upon publication. Poets to be included in chapbook will be notified.

Guidelines: Poems must be titled except for haiku; use standard 8½ x 11 white paper with a 12-point font size and Times New Roman font.

Length: 36 lines and spaces counting title and space after title for free verse or traditional; prose poems, 250 words or less.

Line-length: 60 characters or less for free verse or traditional poems.

Theme: Hunger denied, yearning fulfilled. Dreams dashed, wants satisfied. What does your mind, soul, body ache for? What is your deepest desire? Have you found it or still long for it?

Postmark Deadline: October 15, 2017

Fee: None

Compensation: One complimentary chapbook to each poet whose work is included.
